Mr. Parker, Thank you for asking. I think it would be fine for you to be on the call. I know I don't have to remind you but I will anyway that the call is for all the tribes who call in and we will need to make sure they all have opportunity to provide input.

Subject: question

Mr. Parkin,

Do you have any concern if I am on the tribal consultation call on March 17? The president of one of the councils just asked me to do so. I have asked the other tribal councils to which I am counsel, but I have not heard back yet. I also said I could assist any of the six to which I am counsel, if they cannot make the call.

While I might chime in, I think it best if I mostly just listen, so that I can offer thoughts or advice to my clients outside of the call. I realize there are likely to be representatives of other councils on the call, and I would want to be deferential to the needs of all while on any such call.

Your thoughts, please.

(I have cc'd Cara Steiner-Riley in order to apprise your counsel.)

Thanks,

Jeff Parker
